We strive to develop positive relationships by including all members of our community in the development of our teaching and learning community based on Christian spirituality, faith and love. Our professional practices and collaborative relationships should be conducted following Gospel Values so as to support high quality teaching and learning.

We accept and welcome differences and their importance in the development of Christian relationships.

We accept that there will sometimes be breakdowns in communication, but will strive to ensure they are only learning experiences on our way to better relationships.
